I want say its alot better game then lux it self this is really good step up what it needs thought is better UI and I dont know where these 150 maps are other then the maps people made them selfs. it really didnt come with no 100 maps and maps you see in screen shoots are maps you can download and this is also issue with lux delux. I am not sure if lux delux maps work on lux alliance. and the UI or editor for making maps is pretty ehh honestly it could be alot better the drawing tool really sucks it should been more of a painter tool then line drawing tool with diff size brushes. but other whys its decent game..
